

Cabinets should be assembled by a qualified cabinet installer. We recommend that all cabinets use wood glue during assembly. For a cleaner look and a faster installation, cabinets may be assembled with a brad nailer. If using the supplied hardware, holes should be pre drilled before inserting screws to prevent splitting. Hardware provided is for cabinet assembly only. Hardware for securing cabinets together and to the wall will need to be purchased at a local hardware store.